

We are continually harrassed by phone calls during inconvenient times of the day. We think we should initiate any calls for items to purchase, donate to. It is an invasion of our privacy, our time, and time taken away from important things. We ask that you continue this service. Thank you